

REJUVENATING THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY CLUB!

Call to order, all Friends of the Hillside Public Library members past, present, and future! A general meeting is needed to elect new officers for the Friends of the Hillside Library. Who are the Friends of the Hillside Library? Come out and discover how this wonderful group supports the efforts of the library with fundraisers such as the annual book sale. The meeting is to be held at the library on Sunday December 9th at 1:00 in the large meeting room downstairs. Please sign up at the front desk or email Kelly Mathieu at Sonnygal@email.com if you can attend. Also, please call (708-220-5131 and leave a message) or email Kelly if you have any questions. Refreshments will be served.

TrueFlix

Try out the new online database from Scholastic Publishing for students in grades 3 to 6. TrueFlix pairs full-text nonfiction ebooks with interactive videos, websites and projects that let you explore a variety of science and social studies topics. There is a flipbook version of each True Book with page-turning and read-along features, chapter tabs and vocabulary terms identified and defined. Try using the TrueFlix database for you next school project. You will find that each book has project ideas, subject related articles and links to websites about the topic. Hillside residents may use the databases from home with a valid Hillside Public Library Card. Don't forget about BookFlix also by Scholastic the online literacy resource that pairs classic video storybooks with related non-fiction ebooks for children Pre-K-3.
