Do you love browsing through cookbooks and trying new recipes?

Then, this is the club for you. Each month we will select a cookbook and place copies on hold at our circulation desk. You will checkout the cookbook and choose one recipe you would like to share. Each member of the club will make that recipe and bring what is cooked, baked, (etc) to the meeting for all to try. First we will eat. After eating, we will rate the recipes and review the book. Copies of the cookbook will be available for checkout four weeks before the meeting. Our first discussion and sampling will be held on March 2! We hope to see you there! Ask any staff person if you have questions. Please Register.
