7. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

a. BUILDING AND GROUNDS

- i. We negotiated a new natural gas supplier contract through NIMEC with 16% decrease in rates.
- ii. We have continuing problems with someone turning on the water spigot overnight and getting water in the basement.
- iii. HVAC repair last month sealed 4 leaks in the evaporation coils at a cost of $12,153. This repair is expected to last until we move to the new building saving us the interim HVAC project costing $200,000 - $300,000.

b. BUSINESS OFFICE

- i. Audit – The audit continues to go well.
- ii. We have received a large portion of our fall tax disbursement.

c. LIBRARY COMMUNITY NEWS

- i. IGA with Hillside School was approved by the Hillside Board of Education on August 14, 2024. This will give extended library resources to the school, its teachers and administrators and expands library access for students.
- ii. There has been interest in the new nonresident fee structure.
- iii. The Passport to Proviso billboard will be displayed at I290 and Mannheim through September.

d. PROGRAMMING

- i. The summer reading wrap-up party was a great success. Summer Reading had strong engagement and participation. The cost was much less this year.
- ii. Project Backpack had over 1600 attendees and distributed 350 backpacks. The remaining backpacks were brought to Hillside School for students who were not able to attend.
- iii. Community engagement has resulted in a much greater recognition for the library and staff have been able to increase donations to the library as well.

e. PERSONNEL

- i. Veronica Villagomez was promoted to Public Services Director.
- ii. We will be hiring more staff as needed.

f. CONTINUING EDUCATION AND MEETINGS

- i. Director Franco was asked to chair the ILA Awards Committee.
- ii. She is also working on the AI Networking Group with RAILS.

g. 3 THINGS TO SHARE

- i. You can still use the notary services for school registration.
- ii. Non-resident card fee was reduced and children under 18 years old can get a free library card.
- iii. The new contract with Hillside School was approved. The Library will have textbooks for all grades and a school chromebook.
